Basketball Playoffs

For the first time in fifteen years, our Varsity Boys' Basketball Team advanced to the District 6 1A Playoffs with a victory over Williamsburg. A school-wide pep rally was held on Tuesday to cheer our boys on to victory. Coach Williams was quoted as saying, "1 second, 1 minute, 1 possession, 1 quarter, 1 game at a time. Legends are made in the playoffs; let's be legendary."

Seniors: Jeremy Dietz, Jr. and Tyler Wagner

Juniors: Jaylen Henry, Gavin Buchan, George Weimer, Eric Korhut, William Palmer, Ethan Hill, and Josef Toth

Sophomores: Lance Masser, Julian Dietz, Nate Stiffler, Aiden Blair, and Ayden Burke

Head Coach: Mr. Williams

Assistant Coaches: Mr. Fields and Mr. Boslet

Statisticians: Deviyon Wilson and Tanner Weimer

Books of the Month

by Logan Heinlein

Senior High - Her Hidden Genius by Marie Benedict

Rosalind Franklin has always been brilliant but felt like an outsider. Whether working in a lab in Paris or a university in London, she felt closest to science. When assigned to study DNA, Rosalind believed she could uncover its secrets. She worked tirelessly, convinced that one more X-ray picture would reveal the key to DNA's structure. She hoped this would finally end the criticism from her colleagues. Then, Rosalind finally saw it—the double helix structure of DNA. But what happened next was something she never expected.

Junior High - Superman: Son of Kel-El Vol.3: Battle for Gamorra

Jonathan Kent has faced many challenges on his path to becoming Superman, but now he must stop deadly metahuman bombs. With his journalist boyfriend, Jay, Jon must uncover the secrets of dictator Henry Bendix's "Rising" before all the DCU heroes fall. The mysterious heroine Dreamer may hold the key to saving them. Jon, Jay, and the Revolutionaries confront Bendix in Gamorra, where Bendix's powers turn friends and loved ones into dangerous enemies.
